

WE'RE VOTING UNION YES THIS TIME!

Since the last election not much has changed for the better. Many of us that voted no last time are voting Union YES so we can see real change.

"I voted no the first time, but I am voting Union YES this time because; ERC and management needs a lot of improvement, and Amazon has lied to my husband and I and we need things to change."
- Amanda Kerrh

"I voted no last time, but I'm voting YES now because safety issues still haven't been addressed, I want better pay, more UPT and PTO."

WE'RE VOTING UNION YES THIS TIME!

"All I knew before was what Amazon told me and that's why I voted no. When you know better you do better. That's why I'm voting Union YES! Without change nothing changes. We need job security because Amazon can fire you tomorrow without probable cause."
- Leette Foreman

"I voted no last election, but I'm voting union YES this time because I want better promotional chances and PTO to accrue longer than 48-hours."
- Corey Chatmon

"I Voted no the first time. And then realized that the favoritism got worse. This time I'm voting YES because we need a contract to ensure fairer promotions." - Valerie Shorter
